Opis produktu

The Avery Short provides the ultimate in lightweight riding comfort and designed with a flattering trail ready fit. Built for those who prefer a weightless feel and breathable shell short, four-way stretch fabric means unrestricted movement. Semi-elastic waistband stretches for the perfect fit. A zippered security pocket stashes snacks, tools, or phone without interfering with pedaling comfort. With a board-short inspired look and a dialed-in mountain-bike-specific fit, the Avery performs equally as well on your favorite trail as it does your local watering hole. Pairs best with the Enduro Liner and Hayden Jersey.
